Mr. Richard M. Bissell, Jr.

Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Richard:

Attached is the list of topics which you wanted us to supply in a hurry. Unless you advise that this is undesirable or not particularly useful, I propose to follow this up in a week or so with a longer memorandum on how ideally we feel [] might be set up to serve the government.

On the problem of [] we have decided that this is something we are definitely willing to make a serious effort on. We cannot, as I explained to you earlier, make a firm commitment until we have explored at greater length possible people who might take principal responsibility. This in turn we cannot do without some further action at your end. If there is anything further you wish us to supply now, let me know; otherwise I will assume that you will proceed with setting up the necessary arrangements.

Best regards.

Yours,
